Message from HHHS President

Greetings Friends,
Happy New Year!

I am worn out from too much fun, wonderful events this Holiday season. MacKenzie ran a beautiful Christmas tour. Over the Holidays, I have been busy cleaning up brush and dead trees around Ardena School.

I would like to get thoughts regarding recruiting new members. Everyone, please think of ways to attract new people to HHHS. Margaret has been doing a great job with our new Facebook page.

I hope all of you enjoyed the Holidays. Before you know it, we will be looking forward to the Easter Bunny at Ardena and to see what Leigh, Ron & Larry have up their sleeves for Spring.

Any thoughts about new members or events you would like to see happen, please let me know.

Sincerely,
Jude Meehan, President

NEWS

Old Ardena School Update

We're closed for the winter, but planning our activities to celebrate America's 250th Birthday. Where did the time go? It seems like only yesterday we had all of the bicentennial activities throughout 1976. Ardena School # 2 was moved to its current site, renovated, and reopened to the public to share a piece of Howell's past as part of America's 200th celebration. I remember the ride from Phillipie to New York and the re-enactment of the first readings of the Declaration of Independence. We plan to highlight the Declaration of Independence at the schoolhouse in late June. Once again, Old Ardena School # 2 will host Peter Rabbit when we reopen in March. Old Monmouth Weekend is set for May 2nd and 3rd and we are proud to be part of the tour. The activities we plan help to bring in our visitors and have been well received. Many visitors share their experiences with their friends and neighbors and that helps to spread the word our precious Ardena School is open and alive with history.

Look for details about these upcoming events and others in future newsletters and on our Facebook page.

For general questions or scheduling of a private tour of Ardena # 2, the School Committee members are: Anne Hartmann, Debbie Frost, Margaret Winkelman and Vicky Arose

"Christmas in Camp" illustration by Thomas Nast for Harper's Weekly January 3, 1863

MacKenzie House Museum & Library Update

The December Open House at the MacKenzie Museum was a delightful time of singing and taking a step back in time. When you look at the pictures, later in the newsletter, you will see an illustration of Santa Claus hanging over the buffet in the dining room. That illustration is noteworthy because it highlights "Thomas Nast and the Making of the American Santa Claus."

The famed 19th Century political cartoonist is considered to be responsible for shaping the modern American Santa Claus. Born in Germany, Nast immigrated to the U.S. with his mother and sister in 1846. He studied at the National Academy of Design before beginning his career at Illustrated Newspaper in 1855. In 1862 he joined the staff of Harper's Weekly, where he became nationally known for his scenes of the Civil War. Nast's first depiction of Santa Claus appeared in January 1863 in an illustration titled "Santa Claus in Camp." In that image Santa visited a Union encampment, dressed in "stars and stripes" coat and trousers, distributing gifts to soldiers.

Over the years, Nast continued to refine and elaborate Santa's image. Between 1863 and 1886, he produced 33 Christmas-themed Images for Harper's Weekly. The most iconic rendering seems to be his 1881 version reflecting his continued engagement with national issues. In the illustration over the buffet, Santa appears with a soldier's backpack, a dress sword, and a U.S. belt buckle – symbols of military readiness. A pocket-watch in Santa's hand alluded to the ongoing congressional debate over pay for sailors and soldiers, reminding lawmakers the time was running out for a decision.

As we celebrate the 250th Anniversary of America, we will be highlighting events that affected people who lived in Howell during the Revolution, and we will highlight some of the stories and artwork that help us remember our history.

We hope you will visit us often during 2026 to enjoy the celebrations!

Wreaths Across America

December 13, 2025 was a day that saw many ceremonies and volunteers placing remembrance wreaths on Veterans' graves nationwide. In the Howell/Farmingdale area many of the local cemeteries participated in the event. Community volunteers came together to make sure wreaths were placed on the graves at Evergreen, Jerseyville, and Ardena Baptist Cemeteries. Check out the photos at the end of this newsletter.

And a special thank you to Leigh Shaffer and the Farmingdale Historical Society who organized Evergreen, Debbie Frost and Pastor Yoseb Jerseyville's organizers, and Ann Malsbury who assisted at Ardena Baptist's Cemetery. Without their work throughout the year, the wreaths would not have been purchased for the event and the individual cemetery ceremonies and remembrances to keep our veteran history alive in Howell and Farmingdale would not have occurred. You too could become part of this nationwide event this coming December 19, 2026. It's a great event to remember America's veterans!
